Exclusive representative of the Hedda Sterne estate since mid 2015, Van Doren Waxter in New York presents a solo show of works from Sterne's "Machines" series March 10 through April 29. "Her last gallery exhibition in New York was in 2004, and her most recent retrospective was in 2006 at the Krannert Art Museum at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign. In most people's frame of reference these shows are distant memories, so effectively we have had to start from scratch," says Dorsey Waxter, explaining why the gallery is exhibiting early works, including Instrument, 1949-50.
